

LS-144: CRYPTO and Warehousing Technician

Post N° LS-144 / Ref. No. 2024_00337

JOB DESCRIPTION - please click here.

- Complete secondary school or equivalent education.
- Experience in handling, material control and warehouse procedures normally acquired as a Junior Technician after five to seven years in the Agency or in a similar organisation.
- Very good knowledge of CRYPTO material and publications, and of NATO security regulations.
- Knowledge of CRYPTO customized software.
- Ability to prepare and write clear, concise letters, reports and detailed plans under appropriate supervision and guidance.
- Possessing honesty with a positive "can-do" attitude and spirit of cooperation; ability to lead teams working together toward established objectives.
- Possessing passion and motivation together with effective communication skills, to create a spirit of cooperation in order to build complementary interpersonal relationships with internal/external customers and stakeholders.
- Possessing emotional intelligence/self-control to remain calm in the face of adversity/conflict while remaining flexible/adaptable to emerging requirements.

WHAT DO WE OFFER?

- Multicultural environment
- Initial three year contract with competitive monthly tax-free salary (subject to Article 19 of the Ottawa agreement on exemption of Taxation)
- Additional benefits for expatriate staff including expatriation and education allowances (where applicable) and additional home leave
- Excellent health coverage
- Great work/life balance
- Generous annual leave of 30 days plus official holidays
- Pension Scheme

POST DETAILS

- Basic monthly salary: EUR 5 921.61, tax free.

HOW TO APPLY?

All candidates (internal and external) should refer to the FAQs before applying.

NSPA internal candidates must submit additionally their latest completed performance report.

NSPA staff members of the same grade can submit a transfer request till 26 September 2024.

Applications sent via e-mail will be automatically rejected.

IMPORTANT NOTES

Qualified redundant NATO civilian candidates of the same grade will be considered in priority.

Interviews are expected to be held approximately six weeks after the application closing date. The Talent Acquisition and Development Office shall let you know in due

Position Number:
LS-144

Ref. No.:
2024_00345

Position category:
Transport and Warehousing

Grade:
NATO grade 12:B5

Minimum educational level:
Full secondary school

Duty location:
Capellen, Luxembourg

Who can apply?:
NATO Civilian Staff and external candidates who are nationals of a NATO member country are invited to apply.

Application Deadline:
10 October 2024

Type of project:
Current publication

Vacancy status:
Receiving applications until deadline

course the outcome of the screening process.

Moreover, due to the broad interest in NSPA and the large number of potential candidates, telephone or email enquiries cannot be dealt with.

The Agency would appreciate it if addressee countries could provide their support by submitting candidates whose security clearance can be effected (or confirmed) rapidly and who could report for duty as soon as possible after selection.

NSPA as an employer values diverse backgrounds and perspectives and is committed to recruiting and retaining a diverse and talented workforce. NSPA welcomes applications of nationals from all Member States and strongly encourages women to apply.

NSPA COVID MEASURES:

All deployable vacancy announcements include the requirement to be fully vaccinated at the time of receiving the offer of employment. No offer of employment shall be made to deployable candidates who refuse to be vaccinated.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

Your application should be submitted in one go and you will not be able to modify your data once submitted.